

○ GOD WHO JUDGES RIGHTEOUSLY

Album 24 Song 2

Song 2 God of Justice

Psalm 94 – Cry for God to rise and bring justice against the wicked who crush God's people, kill widows and orphans, and think God does not see. Affirmation that the Lord will not abandon His inheritance.

O God who judges righteously, shine forth and set things right!
You who judge the earth with justice, repay the proud with might!

How long will the wicked triumph, how long will they rejoice?
How long will evildoers boast and lift their arrogant voice?

Foolish ones, when will you understand?
Brutish hearts, when will you gain wisdom's hand?
He who formed the ear—does He not hear?
He who made the eye—does He not see and fear?

O God who judges righteously, shine forth and set things right!
You who judge the earth with justice, repay the proud with might!

They crush Your people, oppress Your own,
Widows and strangers they slay and atone,
The fatherless they murder without shame.

O God who judges righteously, shine forth and set things right!
You who judge the earth with justice, repay the proud with might!

Turn judgment back to righteousness,
Comfort our souls with Your tenderness.
The Lord will not cast off His own,
His heritage He will never disown.

O God who judges righteously, shine forth and set things right!
